

Community Health Event Survey

23 people participated in a survey about community health events

75% of participants did not attend community health events because they were not aware of them

Of participants that attended a community health event, most went (70%) because of personal interests

Participants would like to be notified of events via social media, email, or flyers

